
Nash score = (NDCG(λ^) / $\text{NDCG}_{\text{base}}$) × (APLT($\lambda^$) / $\text{APLT}_{\text{base}}$). Rising curves reflect growing relative headroom over a collapsing baseline, not improving absolute trade-offs.